Latest Fashions--Instanter!

Not all fashions that are created by the great Paric Ateliers find their way to this country.

But all fashions that Paris approves and New York accepts may be had by any store that go after them. Models are forwarded, reproductions made and samples sent to stores who can use them. Almost the instant a new fashion is out it can be found in the Parsons-

Souders Salons of Dress. It may be an exact copy, instanced a Jean Lanvin suit, shown here today;

$45, or a modified copy. But no matter - it is here at your service and in the form that good taste commends for its suitability.

Beautiful Silks

Fabrics par excellence of the season-charmeuse, Crepe meteor, chiffon, Taffeta and crepe de chine.

They are the fashionable silks of the season, those rich, beautiful materials which are so well adopted for the making of distinguished gowns.

Here a woman will not find only the choice colorings which the Vogue demands, but black and white.

$1 to $2 a yard.

REBOUX

One of the smartest of our Autumn models introducing the winter note.

An original and very distinct design which will appeal to the women of more than the average good taste.

The Reboux is made in Pan Velvet, sharply turn back brim, on which poses a small out long Cafe-au-Lit bird.

This is one of many beautiful hats that await your coming.

This Week a Showing of Evening Gowns in the French Salon

Evening dresses of charmeuse, taffeta, and chiffon orilliant, show much decoration of spangles, jet laces and beads; also much black is used. Maize and black is one favorite color combination; Flame and silver is another. Prices are $25 to $45.

Sixteen original creations by Madame Jackson, New york—$50 to $100.

Upwards of a hundred gowns—which reveal all the fashion secrets of the coming season.

Remember, please—there is one model of a kind only—never will a style be duplicated in the same city. Exclusiveness is our watchword along this line.

No evening gowns sent on approval. Visitors wel-

Women's Silk Stockings in Gas-Light Tints, $1 Pr.

The theory that women look better in things to match have ample confirmation this winter. In carrying out this idea one may have stockings to match the gown and shoe.

McCallum Silks, $1.25; black only. Kaysers, $1.50 to $2.25; black only.

EVENING GLOVES

You may pay as high as five dollars here for 16-button kid gloves for evening wear, but it is not necessary; at $3.50 and $4:00 are most excellent gloves of real French kid skins. Black or white, of course.

New Spangled Trimmings; allovers, edges and bands to match; Black and evening shades.

New Fur trimmings one-half to 4 inches wide; Fitch, Coney, oposum, Marmot, Skunk and imitation ermine, 15c to $3.50 a yard.

Luxurious Coats

One can get a charming old rose velvet for as little as $37.50; richly lined; with large collar and deep cuffs of

Between $25 and $50, such wraps may be had that are in keeping for both afternoons and evening wear.

You Can Have Evening Slippers to match your gown

Indeed, you can have slippers made of the same material but it requires three weeks for delivery. Prices moderate.

AT $3 A PAIR are Satin Evening Slippers in Light Blue, Pink, White, Black and Pearl Gray.

FOX FOOTERY'S best style of evening slipper has a style all to itself; black only. $3.50 special.

Young Women's Distinguished Tailored Suits At $25

Yes, DISTINGUISHED!

Women have a right to expect thoroly good, well-cut Suits at this price. But women who know the Parsons-Souders Salons of Dress will expect something more than this; and they won't be disappointed.

Almost every style is copied from something much more expensive and possessed of the chic and prettiness associated with the finer novelty suits.

The Stocks are very fine; Suits displayed in crystal dustless cases.
